2011 Spartans

2011 Outlook

Cathy George

Now in her seventh season in East Lansing, head coach Cathy George returns all but one starter from last year and will use that to her advantage along with seven new members on the volleyball team this season.

The theme for MSU this year is "team first". During the spring, the Spartans went through a series of team building exercises which will allow them to better lead, communicate, listen and interact with their teammates.

"This off-season we really stressed the `team first' mentality," said George. "In the short time back on campus, it is obvious that they have all come back much stronger both mentally and physically. It has been rewarding to watch them grow together in ways that are beyond a game played with a white and green ball.

"This team is willing to do what it takes to win and we are looking for this squad to be a unified unit. Winning as a team is a feeling that one cannot replicate, and it is one which we are trying to see each and every day."

After narrowly missing the NCAA Tournament in 2010, the squad feels as though it has unfinished business after the sour taste in its mouth at the end of the year, but with five seniors experienced in the post-season, the Spartans will certainly capitalize on the opportunity with another run to the NCAA Tournament.

Outside Hitter

The Spartans will rely on a several seniors on the outside to bolster the attack, after losing the team's top kill leader from the previous two seasons to graduation

Jenilee Rathje

Although she made the move to middle blocker last year, Jenilee Rathje looks to return back outside for her final season in the green and white. Rathje is the top returning offensive threat as she tallied 297 kills along with 94 blocks in 2010. What stood out the most for Rathje and the Spartans was her .340 hitting mark, earning her AVCA All-Mideast honorable mention honors as well as being named a unanimous first-team All-Big Ten selection. Within the conference, Rathje improved her rank to tops on the team with 213 kills and a 2.96 kills per set average.

"Realistically, Jenilee can play any position for us. She has outstanding athleticism and character. We know that her versatility will be an asset throughout the year," said George.

The hard-hitting Kyndra Abron returns for her final year with 2009 AVCA All-America honorable mention honors under her belt and a new mind-set towards her final season. In 2010, Abron registered 57 total blocks within the conference, good enough for second best on the team, and 174 kills, third most for MSU. Overall, Abron had a break-out year at the net with a career-best 76 total blocks for a 0.73 blocks per set average. Overall, Abron was fourth on the team with 256 kills on the year.

"Probably one of the hardest hitting attackers in the country, Kyndra's ability is growing with added dimensions to her game. Powerful would be a perfect word to describe her," George said.

The versatile Becca Zlabis will also see swings on the outside. And although Zlabis is a solid attacker, it is her consistent defense and passing that makes her vital to playing all six rotations. With her ability to continuously remain on the court, Zlabis led MSU last year with eight double-doubles to bring her career total to 17. In 2010, Zlabis led the squad in digs with 304 while ranking third on the team in kills with 264 to her credit.

"The experience Becca has gained these past three years have given her all the tools to have a very successful senior year. Becca is a complete volleyball player," said George.

Junior Amy Dentlinger will compete for a starting spot outside, as well, as she showed great signs of success on the court on multiple occasions last season. After appearing in only four contests as a freshman, Dentlinger quadrupled her time by seeing action in 16 matches. Towards the end of the 2010 season, Dentlinger had a breakout weekend as she recorded double-digit kill totals in back-to-back road matches against Iowa and Minnesota. Dentlinger ended the year with 59 kills for a 1.74 kills per set mark.

Kyndra Abron

"Amy has tremendous power. Her ability to see additional playing is in front of her. Consistency will be the key, and she is heading in the right direction," said George.

The Spartans also welcome two newcomers on the outside in junior transfer Gina Lang and freshman Taylor Galloway.

Lang arrives in East Lansing after spending the past two seasons at William & Mary. In 36 career matches with the Tribe, Lang recorded 144 kills along with 28 blocks and 174 digs. At Valparaiso High School, Lang captained her team in 2007 and 2008, earning first-team all-area honors each season. Lang also was an all-conference selection as a senior.

"Gina has a natural and fluid arm swing, which gives her a dangerous attack. Her solid play will help stabilize our lineup throughout the year," George said.

Galloway brings with her a wealth of experience on the AAU circuit as her Dead Frog club team placed third at the 2010 AAU Junior National Championships. Galloway also earned 2010 AAU National All-American honors at the competition. The Portage Central product was a nominee for the 2010 Michigan Miss Volleyball Award while ranking No. 90 in the PrepVolleyball.com Senior Aces list in 2010-11.

"Taylor is a total player. She brings a well-rounded game and looks to bring much needed depth to the offense," George said.

Middle Blocker

With the additional possibility of Rathje seeing action in the middle due to her athleticism, MSU currently has four members on the roster with the potential of playing in the middle.

Leading the squad will be red-shirt sophomore Alexis Mathews, who is now in her third year on campus after redshirting her first season. The Detroit, Mich., native was a force in the middle during her first year, as she posted a team-best 127 blocks on the year for a 1.27 blocks per set average. In conference-only contests, Mathews' average grew to 1.29, as she tallied 93 blocks against Big Ten foes. This off-season Mathews represented the USA at the Volleyball Open National Championships as a part of the U.S. National A2 Team. With the emergence of Mathews late last year as a freshman, the Spartans can look at the middle blocker position as one which will be occupied for the next three years by solid hands.

"Alexis is an amazing athlete with a huge amount of potential. In two years, Alexis has developed into one of the most dominating players in the Big Ten," George said.

Sophomore Kelsey Kuipers appeared in 21 matches her first year on campus, starting five of those contests. Her first career start came against four-time defending NCAA Champion Penn State. On the season, Kuipers posted 43 kills along with 25 blocks.

"Kelsey grew leaps and bounds this spring. Her quickness and leaping ability will give her an added edge as she looks to secure a starting spot in the lineup," George said.

Freshman Jazmine White brings with her the MSU mentality as she was coached by former Spartan All-American Dana Cooke as a member of Element Volleyball which won the Ontario Provincial Championships. White was the starting middle for the 2009 Team Ontario squad who competed at the National Team Challenge Cup, so this position will not be new for her.

"Jazmine is a complete player. For having primarily been used in the middle, her ball handling skills are extremely solid. In addition, her physicality will benefit her as she gains experience in our system," said George.

Carli Weiler

Libero/Defensive Specialist

One of the deepest positions for the Spartans in 2011 is the defensive specialist slot. Leading the way is senior Carli Weiler, who became the starting libero for MSU a third of the way into last season. She will certainly face fierce competition for the starting position as she will be joined by four newcomers.

In 2010, Weiler started 22 of her 27 matches and recorded a career-best 257 digs on the year. Against the Big Ten, the Oak Lawn, Ill., native led the team with 207 digs along with a 2.72 digs per set mark.

"Carli really stepped up at the end of the season for us, and has never looked back. Her leadership, work ethic and determination have been obvious and have had an amazing impact on our team," said George.

Chelsey Probst comes to MSU as a 2009 NJCAA Division II Volleyball Champion with Illinois Central College. Probst helped her team finish seventh at the NJCAA Division II Volleyball Championship while appearing in 83 matches before transferring to MSU in the spring.

"Chelsey has made the transition to MSU this spring, and has made constant improvement. Her passing and defense will prove to be necessary depth," George said.

A local product from near-by Okemos, Stefanie Shiramizu arrives as a Spartan after spending a season with Wright State. While at WSU, Shiramizu recorded a team-best 510 digs on the season as a freshman, the fourth highest total in Raider history. Shiramizu sat out last season after transferring to MSU in the fall.

"Stephanie has an aggressive, determined nature which gives an added attitude to her defense. Her presence and ability will give this team some added swagger," said George.

Freshman Kori Moster boasts a wealth of accomplishments as a high school standout from Ursuline Academy. Moster became the first Spartan recruit to compete in the Under Armour All-America Volleyball Match & Skills Competition. Moster also was named to the Volleyball Magazine's NFINITY Girl's Fab 50 list, listed on the ESPN RISE All-America First Team, earned 2010-11 Under Armour First-Team All-America honors and was a PrepVolleyball.com high school All-American.

"Kori has a great deal of championship experience. Her competitive yet composed spirit complements her talent well, and will help her transition to the Big Ten," George said.

Another newcomer Ryian Hubbard, moving from the setting position the role of defensive specialist, also brings with her to MSU a winning mentality, as she finished high school with a record of 245-23-12 while winning four MHSAA Class D State Championships for Battle Creek St. Philip. The 2010 PrepVolleyball.com High School All-American was a four-time Michigan Interscholastic Volleyball Coaches Association first-team All-State selection.

"Ryian has a great knack for the ball. A four-time all-state setter gives her versatility and exceptional ball control," said George.

Setter

The Spartans return two setters from last year in senior Natalie Emro and sophomore Kristen Kelsay. Both Emro and Kelsay give MSU arguably one of the top one-two punches in the conference, and therefore, the nation. The Spartans were able to immediately modify the offensive mindset as Kelsay allowed the team to quickly adopt the 6-2 offense, if desired.

Emro has appeared in every collegiate match since her arrival at MSU and is currently ranked fifth all-time as a Spartan with 3,197 career assists. For the third-straight season, Emro led the team on the year with 653 assists and became only the fifth in school history to tally 3,000 assists in a career. Throughout her career, Emro has started in 85 contests, including 84 straight.

"Natalie has come a long way this past spring. Her attention to detail has been impressive. A natural athlete, she is rounding out her game to become a more versatile player," George said.

Kelsay made a quick impact for the Spartans, as she started the final nine matches last year while appearing in 74 of MSU's 76 sets. In conference matches, Kelsay was MSU's top setter with 411 assists and a 5.55 assists per set ratio. Overall, Kelsay was second, behind only Emro, with 574 assists. At the end of the year, Kelsay found herself ranked sixth all-time in program history as a freshman with 5.36 assists per set average.

"Kristen has made quite an impact as a freshman, but has really added to her game this past spring. Her thirst for knowledge and work ethic has helped her make significant strides," said George.

Cathy George

Head Coach • Seventh Season • Illinois State '85

Before arriving at Michigan State, Cathy George had already established herself as one of the more well-respected coaches in the nation. George has quickly helped Michigan State return among the elite programs in the Big Ten Conference in just her seventh season. George ranks 36th among active coaches for total wins in NCAA Division I volleyball with 464 victories. In addition, George ranks among the top 80 coaches all-time with a career .595 winning percentage. Every year, George has had her teams in the top-25 in annual attendance among all NCAA Division I teams, including a high of eighth in 2008 when the Spartans welcomed 36,419 total fans. George currently boasts a career record of 464-316, and is 99-92 while at MSU.

George has continued the tradition of excellence in the classroom at Michigan State as she has boasted 28 Academic All-Big Ten selections and four Big Ten Distinguished Scholars during her time.

The 2010 season once again saw the Green and White face one of the toughest schedules in the nation, as it played two of the 2009 NCAA semi-final teams over the course of the season. MSU opened up the year with its seventh-straight MSU Showcase title before taking on the rigorous conference slate. The Spartans closed out the 2010 campaign by winning four of their last six matches, highlighted by an impressive 3-0 win over then-No. 19 Michigan at home in the Breslin Center on Senior Night before a record-setting crowd of 6,824. As a result of the 3-0 win, MSU regained the "State Pride Flag" for the first time since 2006, also the last time the Spartans topped U-M in straight sets. Red-shirt junior Jenilee Rathje became the 17th all-time in program history to amass 1,000-career kills as she tallied eight against Northwestern to wrap-up the year. Rathje earned unanimous first team All-Big Ten honors as well as being named an AVCA All-Mideast Region honorable mention selection. Also, junior Kyndra Abron was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team while red-shirt freshman Alexis Mathews was an honorable mention selection.

In 2009, the Spartans once again earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament. MSU opened the campaign by winning its first 12 matches of the season - the third-best start to a year all-time and the best since the 1976 season. Along the way to the third NCAA Tournament appearance in the last four seasons, the Green and White posted upset wins over then-No. 12 Southern California in the opening match of the year, as well as then-No. 12 Illinois in the Big Ten home opener. Sophomore Kyndra Abron became the first sophomore in program history to be named an AVCA All-America, earning an honorable mention selection. Abron also was just the third Spartan to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors as a sophomore; Val Sterk - 1994 and Jenna Wrobel - 1996.

After losing 64-percent of the total offense from 2007, George was able to bring in the No. 7 recruiting class in - the best in MSU history - to help shoulder some of the burden and void left by the graduating class. That recruiting class helped George compile a 15-16 overall record in 2008, despite playing five freshmen at a time for most of the season. It was clear that although the record did not reflect it, George may have had one of her finest years as a collegiate coach in 2008.

George spent the spring of 2008 coaching the USA A2 Red team to the USA Adult Open Championship. The USA A2 Red Team topped the University of Washington's Huskies VBC team, 3-1, in Atlanta. George and University of Texas head coach Jerritt Elliott, the A2 Blue coach, conducted training of 20 selected collegiate student-athletes before the championships and split the student-athletes into two teams for competition. George's A2 Red Team took home the gold, while the Blue team finished with the bronze. This was George's second stint with USA Volleyball as she was an assistant coach for the US team at the 1999 World University Games.

George had arguably her best season at MSU in 2007, guiding the Spartans to the NCAA Regional Semifinals and a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten. Overall, MSU went 21-14. The 2007 Spartans entered postseason play in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2002 and 2003. Under George's guidance, senior Ashley Schatzle became the Spartans' seventh AVCA All-American as she led the team that season with 553 kills.

George guided MSU to the 2006 NCAA Tournament in just her second year at the helm of the Spartan program. George led a rebuilding Spartan squad to a 19-12 overall record, including a 10-10 mark in Big Ten play. The Green and White made its first trip to postseason play since the 2003 campaign.

In George's first year as head coach, the Spartans finished the season with a 12-18 record, going 5-15 in conference action. George also saw three Big Ten Player of the Week honorees and two Third-Team 2006 ESPN Magazine Academic All-America Volleyball District IV Team members. Under George, heavy hitter Katie Johnson earned All-Big Ten Honorable Mention honors during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, fellow outside hitter Ashley Schatzle was named to the 2006 First Team All-Big Ten Team, and freshman middle blocker Vanessa King garnered 2006 All-Big Ten Freshman Team accolades. In addition, Johnson competed with the U.S. Women's National Volleyball A2 Program during the summer of 2007.

George was hired as the fifth coach in the history of Michigan State volleyball in December of 2004. George has earned conference coach of the year honors in every league in which she has coached before joining the MSU staff and the Big Ten Conference.

Prior to her hiring at Michigan State, George spent 11 years guiding the Western Michigan University program, where she compiled a 185-139 record. Taking over the reigns at WMU prior to the 1994 season, George's Broncos qualified for eight NCAA Tournament appearances under her direction. George reached eight consecutive MAC Tournaments beginning with the 1997 campaign, and her Bronco squad made back-to-back MAC Tournament title match appearances in 1999 and 2000, capturing the title in 2000.

While at WMU, George's student-athletes earned all-conference and national honors while enjoying academic success. George reached the 300-win mark in 2000, and was named the MAC Coach of the Year that same season after guiding the Broncos to the MAC title. She has also gained international experience as an assistant coach for the 1999 U.S. Team in the World University Games, held in Mallorca, Spain.

Sixteen players earned academic all-conference honors during her time at Western Michigan, while four players were named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District team. Her teams posted grade-point averages of 3.00, or better, and boasted a 100-percent graduation rate in 10 of her 11 seasons.

On the court, George recruited high-caliber student-athletes, as three WMU players trained with various U.S. national teams. In 1999, two players were honored with the chance to compete with the Pan Am Games Training Team, while another Bronco was selected to the 2001 U.S. National A2 team. Western Michigan's success under George led to increased attendance, as the Broncos led the MAC in total attendance in eight of her 11 seasons. She also worked to reinstate the Bronco Spikers' Club, which takes part in activities involving the team throughout the year, including pre-match chalk talks, tailgates and post-match wrap-ups.

Prior to her arrival at Western Michigan, George was the head coach at Texas-Arlington from 1989-1993. She led UTA to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Tournaments, with a school-record third-place national finish in 1989.

While at Texas-Arlington, George became the first woman to coach in the NCAA Division I Final Four (1989) and she earned Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors three times (1989, 1990, `92) as she posted a record of 93-74 in her five seasons. George's teams won Southland Conference titles in 1989, 1990 and 1992, were 37-4 in conference play (.902) and finished with a 10-2 record in postseason competition during her tenure.

George got her start as a collegiate coach at North Dakota State in 1987-88, leading the Bison to an 87-11 (.888) record in her first two seasons. In 1987, NDSU posted a 44-8 mark en route to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Division II Championships in her first season as a head coach. She was named North Central Conference and regional coach of the year in both 1987 and 1988 and earned NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year honors in 1988. Also in 1988, George led the Bison to a 43-3 mark and a third-place national finish.

A 1985 graduate of Illinois State, George helped the Redbirds win three consecutive Missouri Valley Conference titles and NCAA Tournament appearances. A team captain and crafty outside attacker, she was a three-time All-MVC selection and earned all-region honors.

George, who earned her master's degree in education from Central Michigan in 1987, and her husband Jerry reside in Okemos, Mich., with their two sons, T.J., 19, and Conner, 14. T.J. is a freshman pitcher on the baseball team at Grand Rapids Community College.

Coaching Staff

Russ Carney

Associate Head Coach • Seventh Season • Ball State '78

Russ Carney is in his seventh season at Michigan State following 11 years at Western Michigan, where he served as an assistant under head coach Cathy George. Carney was promoted to Associate Head Coach on June 19, 2008.

Carney focuses on recruiting and working with the blockers on the court for the Spartans. Last year, freshman Alexis Mathews broke on to the scene for the Green and White as she led all Spartans with 127 blocks on the year, the fourth-best mark recorded by a freshman in school history, for a 1.27 blocks per set average, the third most in program history by a freshman. Mathews closed out MSU's home schedule with 12 blocks against Michigan, the most blocks ever recorded in a three-set match at MSU and the fourth most in all matches. As a result of her stellar season, Mathews was selected to represent USA at the USA Volleyball Open National Championships as a part of the U.S. National A2 Team.

Under the guidance of Carney in 2009, Kyndra Abron became the first sophomore in program history to be tabbed as an American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) All-Americn. Abron also earned All-Mideast Region honorable mention as well as first-team All-Big Ten honors. Also, former Spartan Vanessa King is a student-athlete who thrived under the tutelage of Carney. King ended her career ranked as one of the most efficient hitters in school history and was arguably one of the best middle blockers in the Big Ten in 2008. In fact, Carney was a prime reason that King was selected to the All-Big Ten First Team in 2008 and to the All-Big Ten Freshman team in 2006.

Carney's efforts do not stop on the court. Over the last several seasons, Carney has spearheaded the recruitment efforts at Michigan State. He played an instrumental role in assembling the top recruiting class in Michigan State history heading into 2008. He helped recruit Big Ten All-Freshman Team member Natalie Emro and 2009 AVCA All-American Kyndra Abron. He also helped in the signing of Becca Zlabis, who ranks among the MSU freshmen elite in several categories, Carli Weiler - the fourth-ranked libero prospect out of high school - and other additions to the Spartans roster. Those student-athletes, among others, are the reason that MSU's 2007 class was ranked as the seventh-best class in the nation and the top class in the Big Ten.

Carney also coordinates various other coaching duties throughout the season. Working with a state-of-the-art video system, Carney is in charge of scouting and video breakdown of opponents. Carney also helps the student-athletes by serving as the academic coordinator on the coaching staff.

"Russ and I have worked so well together and had great success throughout the past 17 years," said George. "He and I worked together for 11 years at Western Michigan and I really feel that having that kind of continuity is a strength for the Spartan program. I believe we complement each other very well in our coaching styles. We are able to maximize different areas on the bench and in practice."

A Tunkhannock, Pa., native, Carney started his collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at Kellogg Community College in Battle Creek, Mich., in 1978. He assumed the head coaching duties at KCC in 1980 and promptly guided the Bruins to the National Junior College Athletic Association National Championship that year.

Carney went on to serve as an assistant coach at Wisconsin in 1981 before he was named head coach of the Badgers in 1982, where he remained until 1984. During his stint at Wisconsin, Carney served as head coach of the 1981 U.S. Olympic Festival Men's East Team, guiding that squad to the Gold medal. He was a member of both the NCAA Midwest Regional and Big Ten Conference officiating committees.

A setter in college, Carney attended Kellogg Community College (1973-74) before transferring to Ball State University (1976). He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from BSU in 1978.

Russ and his wife Sherry have a daughter, Jessica, 21, and a son, Branden, 18, who is a freshman on the MSU hockey team, and reside in Battle Creek, Mich.

Mike Gawlik

Assistant Coach • Sixth Season • Pacific ' 05

Mike Gawlik begins his sixth season as an assistant coach and his seventh overall with the Spartan volleyball program. A four-year letterwinner and two-year captain at the University of the Pacific, Gawlik brings six years of competitive coaching experience to George's staff.

In February of 2010, Gawlik was named to the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) "Thirty Under 30" list. The award honors 30 up-and-coming volleyball coaches each year, who are under the age of 30, for their hard work and dedication to the sport of volleyball.

Gawlik currently serves as the liaison between the AVCA and the assistant coaches throughout the Big Ten Conference.

Gawlik's primary responsibility is the mentoring of the defensive specialists. As a back-court standout at his alma mater, Pacific, Gawlik has brought his experience and tenacity to Michigan State, both of which have seemed to rub off on the Spartans on the competition floor.

In the past three seasons, Gawlik has been a primary reason for the Spartans' play on the back line, including that of libero Allyson Karaba. After seeing scarce playing time during her freshman year as a walk-on, Gawlik helped the sophomore tally 518 digs on the season, second-most in a single season in school history. She also ranked third in single-season school history with 4.39 digs per set, and she did so with scoring being reduced from 30 points to 25 points per set. Karaba ended her career trailing only Nicole Colaluca on both lists, an athlete that Gawlik has also mentored in his time at MSU.

Gawlik is also very hands-on with each of the student-athletes, competing at practices and using his competitiveness to rally the team. Gawlik often times will train just as hard in practice as the current Spartans, showing a commitment to excellence and a passion for the game. Gawlik will also deal with compiling video and scouting other teams. He also takes time to e-mail and compile a volleyball newsletter each month, so MSU volleyball fans, alumni and parents can follow their Spartans on a regular basis.

"With the addition of Mike to our staff we really feel we can take our program to the next level," George said at the time of his hiring. "Mike has been involved with a wide range of coaching responsibilities during his career, and brings a bright and energetic presence to the bench. He has been very involved with our program's goals and expectations throughout his time at MSU, and I am excited to have such a high-caliber individual on our staff."

Prior to his current capacity at MSU, Gawlik served as a volunteer assistant where he contributed to practice planning, scouting of opponents, and the development of player skills and game preparation. He also plays a significant role as a member of the MSU summer camp staff, assisting with session planning and budget assessment.

Gawlik has coached at collegiate-level volleyball camps, including Michigan State and Nebraska. He also served as a head coach for the Sports Performance Volleyball Club Summer Camp from 2000-04. A four-year starter at the setter and libero positions for the University of Pacific, Gawlik was a 2003 Mountain Pacific Sports Federation All-Conference selection, was named a Strength and Conditioning All-American (2005), and earned the Student of the Year Award (2005) for sports science majors. He holds two school records, including career games played (382) and career digs (849).

Gawlik and his wife Katie reside in East Lansing, Mich..

Shaylen Jackson

Volunteer Assistant • Third Season • Western Michigan '08

Shaylen Jackson is in her third year with the Michigan State volleyball program after becoming one of the most well-recognized volleyball players in Western Michigan program history after playing under Cathy George for three seasons.

Jackson's second season saw Alexis Mathews propel onto the scene with a record-breaking freshman campaign. Mathews led all Spartans with 127 blocks on the year, the fourth-best mark recorded by a freshman in school history, for a 1.27 blocks per set average, the third most in program history by a freshman.

In her first year with MSU, Jackson worked primarily with the middle blockers. Jackson assisted in the development of Mathews over the course of her red-shirt season and during the spring.

A 2007 graduate, Jackson holds the Western Michigan program records in solo blocks in a five-set match (7), block assists in a five-set match (15), career total blocks (563), and career blocks per game (1.25).

As a 6-1 middle blocker, Jackson helped the Broncos finish third or better in the MAC West in each of her four years with the program, highlighted by an 11-5 mark during her junior and senior seasons. During her senior season, Jackson posted a hitting percentage of .373, which still stands as the best single-season hitting percentage in school history. During her career, Jackson received All-MAC accolades in each of her four seasons, highlighted by All-MAC First Team honors in 2004 and 2005. Jackson was also named All-MAC honorable mention in 2003 and was named to the league's All-Freshman team in 2002.

In addition to her All-MAC honors in 2005, Jackson was also an AVCA All-Region honorable mention selection that year, helping the Broncos to a 20-9 mark, their highest win total at the time since 2000. She was also an AVCA Honorable Mention All-Region selection in 2003. Jackson ended her career fifth on WMU's kills list with 1,257. Jackson also holds the MAC single-match record with a 1.000 hitting percentage on 11 successful attempts becoming the first MAC player ever to achieve that goal based on 10 or more attempts.

Upon her graduation, Jackson worked with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship at Western Michigan and was responsible for leadership development, discipleship, and small group training. InterVarsity Christian Fellowship is an evangelical campus mission that serves more than 32,000 students and faculty on more than 550 college and university campuses nationwide.

Jennifer Dhaenens

Director of Volleyball Operations • First Season

Jennifer Dhaenens begins her first season with the Spartan volleyball team in 2011 as Director of Volleyball Operations. Dhaenens brings with her a wealth of volleyball and administrative experience as she currently is the director with the Top Gun Volleyball Club and was a Division I assistant coach for 15 seasons.

Dhaenens was a four-year letterwinner as an outside hitter at the University of Michigan (1982-85) prior to becoming an assistant at both U-M (1987-98) and Eastern Michigan University (1999-2001).

Following her stints with both U-M and EMU, Dhaenens joined Top Gun in 2004, and has since helped it gain a reputation as an elite club that balances being competitive with having fun. Top Gun's U-16 team won the state AAU title in 2004.

Dhaenens graduated from the University of Michigan in 1987 with a bachelor of fine arts degree.

Jen and her husband, Jeff, have a son, Andrew, 20, and a daughter, Alexandra, 18, and reside in Howell, Mich.

Lianna Hadden

Athletic Trainer • 13th Season

Lianna Hadden is in her 13th year on the MSU athletic training staff and her 11th year of working with the volleyball squad. Hadden, a native of Three Oaks, Mich., received her bachelor's degree in exercise science from Western Michigan University in 1998, with a minor in biomedical science and an emphasis in athletic training. She completed her master of science degree in kinesiology with a specialization in athletic training in 2000 at Michigan State.

"Lianna's knowledge on injury prevention, nutrition and her overall approach to the student-athletes is such an important aspect of our success," head coach Cathy George said. "She really has become like a family member to all of the athletes that have come through Michigan State. "

Hadden has volunteered annually since 1996 for the Special Olympics and has also helped with the Michigan Blind Sports Camps. She is married to Brian Hadden, and the couple has four-year-old twins, Maeve and Asher.

Injuries are a part of sports – they come with any physical activity. The capable hands of the Michigan State sports medicine staff assist student-athletes with injuries incurred throughout their time of competition at Michigan State.

The philosophy of the Sports Medicine staff is two-fold: to help prevent injuries as much as possible through effective preventative programs, and to facilitate an effective rehabilitation program after an injury. In all cases, the ultimate well-being of each individual student-athlete is the top priority.

Hadden travels with the team to each away match and spends countless hours helping ensure the physical well-being of each player. With the ability to monitor each individual athletes needs, Hadden has developed into someone that both the student-athletes and coaching staff have come to trust and respect.

Tim "Red" Wakeham

The Spartan training program enhances explosive power and speed while reducing the incidence and severity of injuries. The strength staff's "neck-down" training and "neck-up" motivating provide the optimal environment for the creation of healthy, powerful and determined athletes who have one focus - winning a Big Ten Conference Championship.

Wakeham runs a summer conditioning program that is next to none in order to prepare student-athletes for the physical demands of volleyball in the Big Ten Conference. Michigan State University: Spartans Change the World

At Michigan State University, Spartans are working every day to advance the common good in uncommon ways. Actually, we've been at it for more than 150 years.

Since our founding as the nation's pioneer land-grant university, we've been encouraging students to explore not just "how" but also "why" while bringing science and innovation into everyday life.

The work goes on today as we find solutions and provide opportunities that make life better in communities close to home and around the world and in ways that are practical yet profound:

- creating disease-resistant fruits and vegetables that help feed the world
- developing robotic fish—an innovative way to better monitor water quality
- improving the world's alternative energy future through research on multiple fronts, including thermoelectric energy conversion, biofuels development, and battery storage technology
- preparing a new generation of urban educators who will make a positive impact on individuals and families for years to come
- developing a vaccine for a strain of E. coli that promises to save millions of lives around the globe
- empowering the world's poorest by partnering to grow crops that slow climate change while also increasing economic opportunity
- leading rare isotope research that fuels breakthrough applications for medicine, national security, and the environment

Lou Anna K. Simon, PhD

President, Michigan State University

Lou Anna K. Simon was appointed the 20th president of Michigan State University by the MSU Board of Trustees in January 2005. An MSU graduate, she began her career at Michigan State as the assistant director of the Office of Institutional Research (now Office of Planning and Budgets) after earning her Ph.D. in 1974. From there, she moved into a variety of administrative roles, including assistant provost for general academic administration, associate provost, and provost and vice president for academic affairs; she served as interim president in 2003.

As president, Simon has engaged Michigan State University in a strategic and transformative journey to adapt the principles of the land-grant tradition to twenty-first century challenges. She has expanded MSU's reach in the state and around the world by focusing the university's strengths on solutions that enhance and protect quality of life: clean and affordable energy, access to education, safe and plentiful food, and health care. She recently outlined these commitments and the philosophy driving them in her monograph Embracing the World Grant Ideal: Affirming the Morrill Act for a Twenty-first-century Global Society.

Simon's key initiatives, particularly in economic development and international engagement, reflect her commitment to applying knowledge to benefit society and further the global common good. Simon is a member of the Council on Competitiveness, a nonpartisan, nongovernmental organization working to ensure U.S. prosperity, and serves on the Blue Ribbon Panel on Global Engagement of the American Council on Education (ACE). She serves on the National Higher Education Security Advisory Board, a group of presidents and chancellors of several prominent U.S. universities that consults regularly with national agencies responsible for security, intelligence, and law enforcement.

Simon's resolute commitment to advancing Michigan's economic future has been a hallmark of her presidency. She serves on the board of directors of Prima Civitas, mid-Michigan's economic development foundation; Business Leaders for Michigan; and the Detroit Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. In the area of international engagement, Simon is a member of the executive committee of the Partnership to Cut Hunger and Poverty in Africa.

Research at Michigan State University reflects Simon's commitment to advancing knowledge and improving quality of life in the world. Under her leadership, MSU has expanded its research in, among other areas, biofuels and green energy; medicine and medical technology; physics and rare isotopes; safe water; and agriculture to address world hunger. Through nearly $500 million annually in externally sponsored research, Simon is ensuring that Michigan State University makes a significant difference in the region, state, nation, and world.

Michigan State University

Mark Hollis

Athletics Director

"We gather and engage our community to teach, support and celebrate our student-athletes in their quest for excellence."

This is the vision Mark Hollis has for the Michigan State Athletics Department. A Michigan State graduate and veteran Spartan athletics administrator, Hollis assumed the role of MSU's 18th athletics director on Jan. 1, 2008, succeeding Ron Mason. Hollis was named athletics director-designate on Sept. 12, 2007, and teamed with Mason in the transition throughout the fall of 2007.

Hollis has more than 20 years of athletics administration experience, either at the school or conference level. His well-rounded background has led to his knowledge of all areas within an athletics department, including marketing, financial administration, television negotiations, fund-raising, game operations, facility management, personnel policy, corporate interaction, sports management and public relations. In addition, Hollis was recently elected Chairperson of the NCAA Division I Amateurism Cabinet. Hollis is just the second chair of the Amateurism Cabinet, as he replaces Mike Rogers (Faculty Rep., Baylor), who had served as chair since the inception of the cabinet in 2008. A member of the amateurism cabinet since 2008, Hollis also will continue to serve the NCAA on the Men's Basketball Issues Committee, a committee on which he's served since 2010.

Hollis, a 1985 MSU graduate, returned to his alma mater in 1995. Since then, he has been a critical component of the athletic department executive management staff, helping guide the department through short- and long-range plans.

On the playing field in 2010-11, Michigan State had a record-setting year, winning five Big Ten Championships – the most in department history. The football team won a school-record 11 games and claimed the program's seventh Big Ten Championship en route to participating in the 2011 Capital One Bowl, which marked MSU's fourth straight bowl appearance and second in the last three seasons on New Year's Day. The baseball team won its first Big Ten title since 1979, while the women's cross country, women's basketball and women's golf teams also won conference championships. Overall, 12 sports participated in their respective team NCAA Championships, while individuals competed in four more NCAA Championships.

In three-plus years with Hollis serving as the Athletics Director, Michigan State has proved to be of the most successful athletic departments in the country, as the Spartans have already won 12 Big Ten Championships in addition to appearing in three bowl games and two Final Fours during his tenure.

In 2009-10, MSU finished 39th in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, marking the 11th time in the past 12 years the department has placed in the top 40. Highlights included the men's basketball team advancing to the Final Four for the sixth time in the last 12 years and winning its second straight Big Ten regular-season title, field hockey capturing both the Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships, and the football team appearing in its third-straight bowl game.

One of Hollis' major goals upon becoming athletics director was accomplished in 2010 when he unveiled the new brand and identity program for the athletics department. All of Michigan State's uniforms now incorporate consistent use of colors, logos, lettering and numerals along with standardization for logos. Throughout the project, equal attention was devoted to maintaining an appreciation for the traditions of the past, while positioning the athletics program for the future. The brand and identity program for Michigan State Athletics was a result of nearly a two-year collaborative effort between the athletics department and Nike that included input from university and athletic administration, coaches and student-athletes.

During Hollis' tenure, Michigan State student-athletes have excelled not only in competition, but in the classroom as well. In the spring of 2011, the athletic department posted the highest GPA in program history with a 3.0272; it marked the third time in the past four years the department has achieved a record GPA. The department also set another benchmark as 14 teams achieved a 3.0 or higher term GPA during the spring semester. Additionally, 238 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors throughout the academic year.

In Hollis' first full season as athletics director in 2008-09, Michigan State enjoyed one of its most successful years of the decade with a 27th-place finish in the Directors' Cup, the best showing for the department since 2003 and the third highest in the department's history. Ten teams earned bids to their respective NCAA Championships, led by the men's basketball team, which reached the national title game against North Carolina while also winning the Big Ten regular-season championship. In addition, the football team won nine games for the first time since 1999 and played on New Year's Day in the 2009 Capital One Bowl, the men's soccer team won the Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships, and the crew team won its second-straight Big Ten title. Individually, wrestler Franklin Gomez claimed the 133-pound national title.

During the spring semester of Hollis' first year as athletics director in 2008, the men's golf and women's rowing teams claimed Big Ten Championships and the men's basketball program reached the Sweet 16 for the seventh time in 11 years. This success propelled Michigan State to 29th in the Directors' Cup standings.

Prior to his official appointment as athletics director, Hollis played a lead role in two significant head coaching searches during the 2006-07 year. He spearheaded the effort to hire Mark Dantonio as football coach, which has resulted in four consecutive bowl appearances for the program and a Big Ten Championship in 2010. He also provided major assistance in the hiring of women's basketball coach Suzy Merchant in the spring of 2007, who led the Spartans to the Sweet 16 in 2009. Hollis' first hire as athletics director arrived on July 2, 2008, when he tabbed Jake Boss Jr. to direct the Spartan baseball program; in just three seasons, Boss won a Big Ten title in 2011, the first for the program in 32 years.

Spartan athletic facilities have been upgraded at an unprecedented rate the past decade, and will only continue to improve under Hollis. In August 2008, the Spartans moved into one of the nation's finest football facilities, as a $15 million expansion and renovation project for the Duffy Daugherty Football Building was completed. MSU alumni Robert and Julie Skandalaris of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., donated $5 million as the lead gift for the facility expansion and upgrade. The Skandalaris Football Center includes new team, staff and position meeting rooms, coaches' offices and a hall of history. In addition, an expanded weight room was finished in September 2008 that increased the facility in size from 9,000 to 16,500-square feet. Also in 2008, the men's and women's soccer programs opened DeMartin Stadium, a state-of-the-art 2,500-seat facility that enables MSU to host conference and national tournaments. In the spring of 2009, the baseball program played its inaugural season in McLane Baseball Stadium following a $4 million donation to the 2,500-seat ballpark by former Houston Astros owner Drayton McLane Jr. This past year, with the help of a $1 million gift by alumnus Ambassador Peter F. Secchia – the largest cash (outright) gift received by an MSU women's intercollegiate sports program – Secchia Stadium opened for the softball program in the spring of 2011, a 1,100-seat facility located at Old College Field.

As a senior associate athletics director, Hollis oversaw all external relations for the MSU athletics department. Included in this group are marketing and promotions, community relations, special event fund-raising, sports information, ticket operations, spirit groups, broadcast services and corporate sponsorships. He also had sports management supervision of the men's basketball program, while also supervising the cheerleading, dance team and band programs.

Hollis has been recognized by his peers as one of the best in the business. In 2002, he was named recipient of the National Marketer of the Year Award as selected by the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA). Under his direction, Michigan State has enjoyed increases in ticket revenues, including 10 years of sold-out football seasons and more than 200 consecutive sellouts in men's basketball. He was successful in negotiating a $2 million donation to the university for the construction of the Berkowitz Basketball Complex, providing both the men's and women's basketball programs with one the nation's top office complexes.

One of Hollis' greatest strengths is his ability to "dream big" in an effort to create greater exposure, not just for the Michigan State Athletics Department but for Michigan State University as a whole. He conceptualized "The BasketBowl," establishing a then-world record attendance of 78,129 for a basketball game between Michigan State and Kentucky at Detroit's Ford Field; MSU earned net revenues of $1 million from the event. The concept of placing the court in the middle of the field in a domed stadium has been used by the NCAA at the past three Final Fours. Similarly, he executed the "Cold War" ice hockey game between Michigan State and Michigan, drawing a then-world record crowd of 74,554 to an outdoor hockey game in Spartan Stadium.

Another one of Hollis' ideas will come to fruition on Nov. 11, 2011 – Veteran's Day – when the Michigan State men's basketball team takes on North Carolina in the "Carrier Classic" in San Diego. Hollis has been instrumental in the planning and implementation of the event, which will be the first NCAA basketball game to be played aboard an aircraft carrier.

On Oct. 13, 2005, Michigan State University and WJR - 760 AM announced a five-year agreement to carry Spartan football and men's basketball games, along with coaches' radio shows. The successful partnership led to the announcement on Jan. 19, 2010, of a 10-year extension through 2020. Hollis played a leading role in finding MSU athletics a home on the 50,000-watt Detroit radio station, known as the "Great Voice of the Great Lakes." The agreement has benefited more than just athletics as WJR regularly promotes the academic accomplishments of the university in addition to broadcasting sporting events.

In this era of college athletics, Hollis also excels in his relations with corporate partners. During his time guiding the office, the athletic department's annual sponsorship revenue billing increased from $350,000 to nearly $3 million. He developed an innovative sponsorship relationship with Nike for footwear, apparel and licensing resulting in cash payments to the university and product for all athletic programs.

Hollis also understands the importance of television broadcasts and other multi-media outlets for promoting the athletic department and the University. Through a combination of innovative strategies and personal relationships with ESPN, ABC and CBS television, he has increased Michigan State's television exposure by 60 percent for football and men's basketball. His background in the field allows Hollis to better understand how to use the emerging Big Ten Network to provide national television exposure for each one of MSU's varsity sports, and how to combine athletics with the academic mission of the university. Understanding the importance of the Internet in today's world, he negotiated an Internet agreement that has MSU ranked consistently in the national top 20 with more than 1.8 million page views monthly.

Prior to returning to Michigan State, Hollis spent two years at the University of Pittsburgh as assistant and associate athletic director. Before his stint at Pitt, Hollis worked for the Western Athletic Conference. He joined the WAC as an administrative assistant immediately after college. Two years later, he was appointed assistant to the commissioner and soon thereafter was promoted to assistant commissioner.

Hollis earned his bachelor of arts degree in communication from Michigan State in 1985, where he served as a basketball team manager under Jud Heathcote. In 1992, he earned his MBA in business administration from the University of Colorado.

He and his wife Nancy, have a daughter, Katy, and two sons, T.R. and Michael.

Spartan Tradition

The Nickname

In 1926, Michigan State's first southern baseball training tour provided the setting for the birth of the "Spartans" nickname.

It all came about when a Lansing sportswriter imposed the silent treatment on a contest-winning nickname and substituted his own choice, the name that has lasted through the years.

In 1925, Michigan State College replaced the name Michigan Agricultural College. The college sponsored a contest to select a nickname to replace "Aggies" and picked "The Michigan Staters."

George S. Alderton, then sports editor of the Lansing State Journal, decided the name was too cumbersome for newspaper writing and vowed to find a better one. Alderton contacted Jim Hasselman of Information Services to see if entries still remained from the contest. When informed that they still existed, Alderton ran across the entry name of "Spartans" and then decided that was the choice. Unfortunately, Alderton forgot to write down who submitted that particular entry, so that part of the story remains a mystery.

Rewriting game accounts supplied by Perry Fremont, a catcher on the squad, Alderton first used the name sparingly and then ventured into the headlines with it. (Incidentally, after two days of spelling the name incorrectly with an "o", Mr. Alderton changed it to Spartan on a tip from a close friend.) Dale Stafford, a sports writer for the Lansing Capitol News, a rival of the State Journal, picked up the name for his paper after a couple of days. Alderton called Stafford and suggested that he might want to join the Spartan parade and he did.

As Mr. Alderton explains: "No student, alumnus or college official had called up the editor to complain about our audacity in giving the old school a new name, so we ventured into headlines with it. Happily for the experiment, the name took. It began appearing in other newspapers and when the student publication used it, that clinched it."

Sparty

"The Spartan" statue, designed and produced by MSU assistant art professor Leonard D. Jungwirth, has a permanent home inside the atrium of the Spartan Stadium tower. The 9-foot-7 ceramic figure weighs approximately 6,600 pounds, including its base. In 2005, the sculpture was relocated to protect it from the elements.

"The Spartan" was dedicated on June 9, 1945, at the intersection of Red Cedar Road, Kalamazoo Street and Chestnut Road. Popularly known as "Sparty," the statue remains one of the favorite photo subjects of campus visitors.

In 2005, an exact replica of the original terra cotta sculpture - now cast in bronze - took up residency on the plaza located at the north end of Demonstration Hall Field. The molds for the bronze statue were made from the original sculpture. The new statue was cast in bronze at the Artworks Foundry in Berkeley, Calif.

As part of MSU' sesquicentennial celebration, the bronze "Sparty" was dedicated on Oct. 8, 2005. Donors contributed approximately $500,000 to pay for all work related to the new sculpture, including the plaza.

Sparty Mascot

Michigan State's beloved Sparty has won three national championships at the Universal Cheer Association's mascot competition at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Fla.

In March 2008, Sparty was selected to appear on the cover of NCAA Football 09 for Nintendo Wii. EA Sports conducted an online poll, asking college football fans to vote and determine which college mascot would have the honor of being depicted on the game's cover. Fans went online and cast more than 700,000 votes and Sparty one a tightly contested race, beating out mascots from Central Florida, Washington State, Auburn, LSU, Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa State, Alabama and Penn State.

In January 2004, Sparty became the first Big Ten mascot to claim the national title, and in 2005, he defended his national championship, beating Goldy Gopher and Bucky Badger in the finals. After finishing third in the 2006 competition, Sparty reclaimed the national championship in 2007.

Made of hi-tech materials, including a vinyl chest plate and fiberglass molds like the ones used for making Muppets, the seven-foot costume weighs in at 40 pounds, allowing enough flexibility for playful gestures and animation. Sparty is a far cry from the many papier-mache heads that have popped up since the 1950's, mostly from fraternity efforts. The first official one apparently debuted in 1955 courtesy of Theta Xi.

Other versions were introduced at times. In 1984, Sigma Phi Epsilon introduced the first "gruff" head — sporting the unshaven look that still adorns many sweatshirts and jackets. By contrast, the current Sparty costume is a state-of-the-art, full-bodied uniform that costs $12,000.

Today six students — their identities kept private — take turns being Sparty with one of three costumes. Because of the costume size, Sparty aspirants must be between 5-10 and 6-2 in height. Candidates who fit the physical needs are chosen after a hands-on process that includes tryouts and interviews. The Sparty Mascot Program is run and funded by the Student Alumni Foundation.

Green & White

Details are sketchy as to when Michigan State athletic teams officially began using the school colors green and white. But records of the Athletic Association of the then Michigan Agricultural College show that on April 11, 1899, the organization took steps toward adoption of a green monogram, "to be worn only by athletes who subsequently take part in intercollegiate events."

It is generally thought the colors came into wide use with the arrival in 1903 of Chester L. Brewer as the school's first full-time director of athletics. Brewer also coached the football, basketball, baseball and track teams, the only varsity units in existence at the time.

MSU Fight Song

On the banks of the Red Cedar,
There's a school that's known to all;
Its specialty is winning,
And those Spartans play good ball;
Spartan teams are never beaten,
All through the game they'll fight;
Fight for the only colors,
Green and White.
Go right through for MSU,
Watch the points keep growing.
Spartan teams are bound to win,
They're fighting with a vim.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
See their team is weakening,
We're going to win this game.
Fight! Fight! Rah! Team, Fight!
Victory for MSU.

MSU Athletics Hall of Fame

On Oct. 1, 1999, Michigan State University unveiled its new Athletics Hall of Fame during Homecoming weekend. The charter class of 30 former Spartan athletes, coaches and administrators was inducted in 1992.

MSU will induct five new members into its Athletics Hall of Fame on Sept. 22, 2011 as part of the "Celebrate 2011" weekend. Jenison Field House

The Michigan State volleyball team has played nearly all of its home matches in historic Jenison Field House since 1993. Built in 1940, Jenison was the home of Spartan basketball until 1989 and is where Magic Johnson helped lead Michigan State to its first NCAA Championship in 1979.

Jenison, which is currently the home to the main Spartan athletic department administrative offices, as well as MSU volleyball, women's gymnastics, wrestling and men's and women's track & field, underwent extensive renovations in 2001. The volleyball facilities were improved to include a large new locker room, an expanded training room, a larger weight room and an improved equipment room. The building also houses locker rooms for baseball, women's crew, field hockey, soccer and softball.

For volleyball, the court runs north and south to accommodate 5,017 fans. Beginning with the 2006 season, seating is available on all four sides of the court, including a special section of courtside seating.

Prior to the start of the 2011 season, MSU renovated Jenison Field House by installing retractable bleachers around the entire floor, featuring chair back seating on the east and west ends. Jenison also received a new paint job and new banners in the rafters with new lights.Also, a state-of-the-art video board was installed on the north end of the building, allowing for instant highlights and pre-match announcements for all Jenison events. The sound system in Jenison received updated equipment to better serve the occupants.

MSU has hosted NCAA Tournament games in 1995, 1996, 1998 and 2003. Jenison Field House features a wooden playing surface that saw its first action during the 2005 season. Fans attending Spartan volleyball matches are treated to a truly spectacular event. Fans can also get into the action with "Ace" and "Roof" cards that are distributed at the door.

The Spartan Side Out Club, the official booster club of Spartan volleyball also attends games at Jenison, holding sales of Spartan gear to help raise funding for the Spartans. Side Out Club members line the court on match day and provide support for the Spartans at Jenison.

Each year, Jenison Field House plays host to one of collegiate volleyball's finest tournaments, the MSU Showcase, which is now in its seventh season. The Spartans won their seventh-straight MSU Showcase last season after topping Bowling Green, Evansville and IUPUI. This year, the Spartans will host two tournaments - the Spartan Showcase and the Spartan Invitational. The Green and White will open the home schedule with the Showcase when they welcome Cleveland State, St. John's and Toledo. The Invitational will boast the lineup of Ball State, Sacred Heart and Virginia Commonwealth

Clara Bell Smith Center/SASS

In 1997, Steve Smith, a former MSU basketball All-American, 14-year NBA veteran and member of the 2003 NBA Champion San Antonio Spurs, donated $2.5 million toward the construction of the Clara Bell Smith Student Athlete Academic Center. This donation, in memory of his mother, Clara Bell Smith, is the largest gift ever by a professional athlete to any college or university. The donation helped fund the construction of the $7.5 million facility, a comprehensive study center for student-athletes.

The two-story, 31,000-square foot Smith Center serves over 700 student-athletes in all of MSU's Division I sports. It also houses a 210-seat auditorium, a "hall of fame" gallery, two study halls, 60 computers split between two computer labs, structured study areas, a student lounge, a conference room, four classrooms, tutoring rooms, a director's office, academic advisor offices and a reception area.

Amenities include:
- Structured study area
- Quiet study areas
- Computerized check-in system
- 10 individual meeting rooms
- Multicultural Center
- Two staffed computer labs
- 64 computers
- Four classrooms
- All rooms equipped with wireless internet access
- 210-seat multimedia auditorium

A Look at MSU Student-Athlete Support Services

Academic, personal, and professional support is essential to college success. At Michigan State University, Student-Athlete Support Services helps student-athletes reach their full potential.

Our philosophy is to offer an academic support program that will assist all student-athletes with the transition to college and integrate with the total university. This all-encompassing support continues throughout the student-athlete's collegiate career, until the day he or she receives a diploma, lands a job, or enters graduate school.

Academic counseling, career exploration, planning and placement, and academic assistance through tutorial programs are just some of the ways we encourage student success.

Being proactive rather than reactive, our staff does not wait for an academic crisis to occur. We gather important background information and build an academic profile on each student-athlete, assessing his or her needs in advance. We also stay informed on the daily progress of each student-athlete.

Freshmen and transfer student-athletes encounter a major transition when making the switch from high school or community college to a university. These students, while adjusting to their new routines, receive extra attention and support.

College is not easy. But with hard work and dedication from both the student-athlete and the support staff, the student-athlete can have a successful college experience.

The staff members assist in and work with the following:
- Priority registration
- Track academic progress
- Monitor grades
- Conduct weekly meetings with freshmen
- Conduct eligibility meetings
- Learning Specialists Services

State Pride Series

Michigan State and Michigan share a long history of rivalries, both in academics and athletics. Beginning in 1990, the two state of Michigan Big Ten Conference institutions began a "State Pride" season series to celebrate the in-state rivalry. Each University hosts a "State Pride Night" when the teams meet during the regular season. A state of Michigan flag bearing the motto "Tuebor" or "I will defend," serves as a symbol of the volleyball rivalry with the winner of the season's face-to-face matches retaining possession of the flag for a year. The flag flew over the State Capitol on Sept. 18, 1990. In addition to the State flag, each school's winning year is listed on its half of a special Michigan State-Michigan banner.

- The school that wins both matches will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If one team does not win both matches, the school that wins the greatest number of games will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If both teams have won the same number of games, the school with the most total points is the "State Pride" winner.
